The Father's Day Bathing Ritual at Ole Henriksen

Spa sanctuary Ole Henriksen is offering the perfect gift for dad to escape from the hustle and bustle of LA — a bathing ritual. "Juggling a career, friends, and children can take a physical toll on the body," says Ole Henriksen owner Vance Soto. "Moments of solitude and complete relaxation for the mind and body can be tricky to navigate and make time for." During dad's spa time, he will soak in water infused with sandalwood and other essential oils while enjoying a refreshing mug of beer. Grated cucumber eye masks are also provided to soothe and de-puff from the stress of fatherhood. 8622A W. Sunset Blvd., West Hollywood, 310-854-7700
